Whitesboro Alumni Scholarship

Dear Graduating Senior:

The Whitesboro Central School Alumni Association is currently accepting applications for its annual Whitesboro Alumni Association Scholarships. The scholarships are open to all eligible seniors of the Class of 2020 who plan on going on to college or a vocational school. We wanted you to be aware of this scholarship and to urge you to apply.

The Alumni Association is also open for membership to all who have attended Whitesboro Central School. We are again offering the special senior membership rate of $20. This is for four years of membership with the Association, which includes semiannual newsletters. It is also a great way to stay in touch with the Whitesboro Central School District, whether you're out of the state or out of the country!

Information about the scholarships is enclosed for your perusal. We welcome your senior to apply for both our scholarships and for membership in our unique association.

Please direct all scholarship applications by the designated deadline to:
